

Kiritampo-nabe Stew

Akita's signature dish. Skewered and roasted rice, or "tampo", is stewed in Hinai chicken broth with fresh, seasonal ingredients.

Grilled Hinai Chicken Skewers

Hinai chicken is sought after by chefs across the country for its exquisite flavor and texture. Hinai chickens are raised free-range three times longer than normal factory chicken.

Hinai Chicken Oyako-don

A fried chicken cutlet laid on a bed of rice and topped with egg. Made using only the finest cuts of Odate's famous free-range Hinai chicken.

Kitaakita
Horse Stew

Slow cooked, tender horse that goes well with demi-glace sauce. A popular dish at the Kogumatei restaurant.

MAP P18D5 / P21F4
北秋田市阿仁銀山下新町119
(秋田内陸縦貫鉄道阿仁合駅内
こぐま亭)

BENTO!! Torimeshi Lunchbox Odate

Odate's exquisite lunch set of sweet chicken and rice. A favorite among visitors and locals alike, it's guaranteed to satisfy!

MAP P19E2 / P20C2
花善 / 大館市御成町1丁目10-2

Lake Towada Sockeye Salmon

Spawned in the cool, deep waters of Lake Towada, sockeye salmon grow fat and flavorful. Try original salmon dishes at the School Café today!

Kosaka Katsu Ramen

Soy sauce ramen topped with a fried pork cutlet. Originally a secret menu item in the 1970's, it's now a popular menu item at every ramen shop in Kosaka.

An authentic Matagi bear hunter recipe. Fresh bear is slowly stewed to bring out the fullest, richest flavor.

Bear Stew

Odate Magewappa Handicrafts

Traditional Magewappa handicrafts are elegantly handcrafted from fragrant cedar. Both beautiful and practical, Magewappa lunchboxes, sake pourers, and mugs are popular items.

Edamame Snacks

Odate's unique climate is perfect for growing delicious edamame packed with nutrients. Sweets of all kind using edamame are produced in the city.

Butter Mochi

Fluffy and just the right amount of sweet, butter mochi rice cakes are the longtime favorite traditional treat of locals and visitors alike.

Fruit Preserves

Kamikoani Village specializes in making Jams and fruit preserves. Be sure to try the Kohaze and Chinese Lantern Jams.

Acacia Honey

100% all natural acacia honey from Japan's largest acacia grove. The bright color, purity, and delicious flavor set it apart from all other honeys.

Local Liquors

Discerning guests can enjoy Odate's award winning Hokushika sake, Kitaakita's "doburoku" sake made from the clear waters of Mt. Moriyoshi, and Kosaka's wine made from the hybridized "shokoshi" mountain grape.

