

Hachiko's hometown: Odate City, Akita Prefecture

The story of the loyal dog who waited for his deceased master at Shibuya station began in Odate.

Hachiko statues outside Shibuya?!

Shibuya Station is not the only home to a Hachiko Statue. Hachi greets visitors at Odate Station as well! There are several statues around town, all of them cherished landmarks.

Odate-Hachiko paradise!

Odate is a dog lover's heaven with many Akita inspired statues, monuments and souvenirs. You'll want to take pictures of them all!

Akita Inu tourism is proud to be representing northern Akita, hometown of the famous dog Hachiko. Our goal is to support the local communities by inviting tourists to experience the cuisine, hot springs, nature, traditional crafts, and unique activities that only the hidden gem of northern Akita can provide.
